The Scroll of Parchment is the Constitution of the United States of America; and also represents Man's Law based upon and in harmony with God's Law.

A PROMISE

Mary Ann Van Hoof (Seer, Stigmatist, and Mystic) was given the following promise before she was taken to her Heavenly Reward on March 18, 1984:

“When we take your sister home, I will be with you on all the Anniversary Days to Bless these Grounds. You will not see Me or the Celestials with Me. I will not abandon you, unless you abandon Me. Is that understood?”

OUR PLEDGE

To stand firmly for God and for Country;

To bring the Truth to all people;

To bring Peace and Unity between Home, School, and Church;

Thus bringing Everlasting Peace to the Nation.

OUR LADY'S MESSAGES

The Revelations and Messages shared at the Queen of the Holy Rosary, Mediatrix of Peace Shrine came from the Blessed Mother, or one of the Saints who assisted Her; such as St. Therese The Little Flower, St. Francis, St. Joan of Arc, and others.

Pilgrims who have visited the Shrine on Anniversary Days when the Revelations were given have seen Mary Ann in a state of ecstasy, noticing that she was not conscious of anything or anyone around her as she spoke. These Messages were taken down on a tape recorder; and in long hand by at least two people. Some Messages were repeated word for word as given by the Blessed Mother; however, in most cases Mary Ann was inspired to speak using her own language, grammar, and expressions. Many Messages were also given during suffering periods in her home, especially during Advent and Lent.

In a more general sense, the Revelations and Messages came from the Triumphant Church in Heaven, who used the voice of Mary Ann Van Hoof as a human transmitting device or instrument.

Message

July 2, 1954 (see Private Message that was mailed to the Elect)

"The young child and the youth will be neglected. They will fall into the blackest of sins. Riots, lawlessness will become commonplace because their own parents, their elders, neglect their own for wantonness in pleasure which will lead to licentious behavior; leaving the youth in confusion; rebelling against society; turning to crime, sin, and drugs; thus leading them to break the Commandments of God, the victims of their elders. Through this they will lose respect for parent, teacher, Officials of the law and religious; far from a God-loving family. Instead: rebellion, if My Requests are not heeded."

Has Youth Violence in the US Increased Since 1950?

per: Quora Website

If so, what are some of the prominent theories as to why violent behavior among teens has increased throughout the years?

One very popular theory of crime rise and fall involves abortion. When abortion was not allowed, the Mothers gave the baby up; and others raised it as a baby they did not really want. As there was a Post-War baby boom in the 60's, the net number of "unwanted babies" went up; increasing the amount of crime, as the children were not monitored enough, or loved enough, because the mother never really wanted the child in the first place.

Youth Gangs and Violence

per: Office of Juvenile Justice

The Miller Survey in 1992 showed that gang violence was very prevalent in the 1960's and 70's. He argued that nothing had changed from the 1950's; rather, media and public attention were diverted from gangs to the Vietnam War, the Civil Rights Movement, and ensuing riots.

Miller's 1992 Study also indicated that gangs had become more dangerous than ever in the 1970's. He attributed this to four major motives: honor, defense of local turf, control of facilities, and gain of money and goods. In the 1970's Miller said, "gang crime was more lethal than any time in history; more people were shot, stabbed, and beaten to death in gang-related incidents

O Lady of Good Health, our Merciful Father chose you to be a powerful intercessor in times of trouble and woe.

STATUE MAKER

We are in need of someone to make plaster statues for the Shrine. We have molds for the Blessed Mother, Crucifix Corpus, and St. Michael. If anyone has made these types of statues before, or knows of anyone interested, we can be contacted through e-mail: shrineinfo@queenoftheholyroaryshrine.com.

SHRINE NEWS

April found us with good weather conditions, so on the 17th we had our first Work Bee with six Volunteer Workers. We removed the Winter protection coverings from the Forms assembled last Fall on the West Side Columns, and took off where we left off in November.

The picture here shows that we are coming along nicely. It is our goal to pour concrete into the four Column Forms and the Connecting Beam this Summer, so the West Side will be finished like the East Side. This will then complete the semi-circle loop across the Sacred Spot Area, which will be the front Altar Area of the House of Prayer.

Now that the Front Area would be complete, and with the help of more Volunteers, it is our hope that we may even get started on the Side Area. We could start setting up more Column Rods with Forms around them, as well as the Connecting Beam with its Rods and Forms.

Please continue your prayers and support for our success. May God bless all of You; and all of our Volunteers!

Anniversary Days Report

The Anniversary Days of May 28th, 29th, and 30th were again the start of our Annual Efforts to honor Our Blessed Mother for Her Visits to Mary Ann Van Hoof in 1950. This year our Wisconsin people were joined by people from the surrounding States of Illinois and Minnesota.

After the Noon Procession went through the Shrine Grounds while singing the Shrine Song “Ave, Ave Mater Dei”, the Preliminary Prayers and Songs were sincerely offered at the Sacred Spot of the Apparitions in thanksgiving to Our Lady. Then at 1:00 p.m. the Prayer Vigil was spent meditating on Our Blessed Mother and Her Divine Son while saying the Fifteen-decade Rosary. This made for another very successful Event.

We always remember this Message Remark that was made by Our Lady: “When we take your sister Home, I will be with you on all the

FOOD FOR THE SOUL

Praying for the Intentions of the Holy Father

One of the conditions to gain an Indulgence from the Catholic Church, either Plenary or Partial, almost always requires us to “Pray for the Intentions of the Holy Father.” It would be helpful to understand what these Intentions may be in light of the confusion in the Church today.

This confusion has caused concern for many Catholics, as they question if the Pope is wanting us to pray for something that is not Catholic. These Intentions may make us wonder if we can still gain Indulgences if we refuse to pray for Intentions, which in our Conscience, we cannot support.

The Baltimore Catechism teaches us that the following Intentions indicate the types that are included when we “Pray for the Intentions of the Holy Father”. As you can see, these Intentions are to be those that refer to the “Welfare of the Church and Religion”:

The Exaltation of the Church

The Propagation of the Faith

The Extirpation of Heresy

The Conversion of Sinners

The Concord between Christian Princes

The Further Welfare of the Christian People

Presently the Church is under great Assaults from the Liberal and Modernist Forces. We need to pray hard for our Catholic Faith and our Hierarchy in the Church; for without the Church and her Priests, we would be without the Graces for our Salvation. We need an increase in Vocations, Monasteries, and Convents who will uphold the Traditional Teachings of the Church; and an increase in Clergy and Religious who will lift the Church up with their Prayers of the Liturgical Hours. These prayers will support them, so they can fight the Evil Forces that are trying to destroy the Faith.

On August 15, 1950 when Our Blessed Mother appeared to Mary Ann Van Hoof at Necedah, Her Message contained several references to this very Concern. She said, “My dear Children, Sisters and Priests, remember your Commandments Our Lord has given you. Live them up daily! Do not forget them! Remember them!” She also said, “Pray for your Priests. Pray hard and devoutly for your Priests; for they need your help. They cannot carry on alone.”

Modernism and Relativism are Tools of the Enemy of God. Our job as “Soldiers of Christ” is to defend the Traditions and the Teachings of the Church. Praying for Holy Mother Church and her Children is necessary, especially in these our Turbulent Times. The Church needs to return to its former strength to be a good influence to all the Nations of the World.

FEATURE ARTICLE

The Role of the Church in Society

Our Holy Mother's Message to Mary Ann Van Hoof on June 29, 1974 stated, "Help Thy Mother, so that She can crush the Serpent with Her heel and save thy Nation. Turn thy Nation back to God. Fly the Flag with true love; make it a glorious 'Old Glory'".

Our Founding Fathers established "One Nation Under God". It is our duty, both as Citizens and Christians, to fight to preserve this "Land of the Free, and Home of the Brave". Christ the King must reign over all hearts and minds, the whole World, not just our Nation. The time is short before God punishes the World, as it has turned away from His love. Christians need to understand how our Society should function, if and when God is at the helm. Knowing our Goal, we can better defend and promote our Freedoms. We are not alone in this Battle. Holy Mother will give us strength.

We see in Society today, the Government has overstepped their powers in many ways. They are attempting to establish a "One World Government" and "One World Religion". Today we hear the term, "The Great Reset". This "Reset" will abolish our Freedoms and place us under Socialism. The time is drawing nearer; and we must stand strong for our Rights, especially for our Faith. The following article is taken from excerpts of "The Catechism Explained" by Rev. Francis Spirago, printed in 1921. We need to better understand how God intended Mankind to live on Earth.

The State might be defined as an Institution, having for its end the promotion of the temporal well-being of its Members. Church and State have similar ends in view, but the Church looks mainly to the Eternal Welfare of its Members. Both have their powers from God: the Church holding hers from Christ; and the State also from God, not from an assembly of men (Leo XIII).

There are various points of difference between Church and State: the Church is one, while States are many; the State includes one or more Nations, while the Church embraces all the Nations on Earth; and States grow up and pass away, while the Church remains forever. In former times, the Church recognized every form of Government, for nothing in the various forms contradicted Catholic teaching. This has changed over the years, so the Church has had to speak loudly against the atrocities of Socialism and Communism. Example: Very few Governments today ban Abortions, etc.

The Church is, in its own department, to be absolutely Independent of the State; for Christ left the teaching and government of His Church to the Apostles and their Successors, not to any Temporal Sovereign. Hence the State has no claim to dictate to Christians what they are to believe or to reject; nor to instruct Priests what they are to preach; nor how and when they are to give the Sacraments, say Mass, etc. Such interference has always been resented by the Church; thus is why Hosius, at the Council of Nicaea, addressed the Roman Emperor when he was meddling in Matters of Faith: “Here you have no right to dictate to us; it is rather your duty to follow our commands.”

The State, too, is in its own affairs Independent of the Church. “The power of the State, as well as that of the Church, is circumscribed by limits within which it can work uncontrolled” (Leo XIII).

There are many points however where these Limits touch; where a Mutual Agreement is necessary on both sides. If Contrary Orders were given on the same matter, strife would arise; and the Subject would not know where his duty lay. Between the two Powers there should be some such Union as there is between the Body and the Soul in Man. Agreements between State and Church are of frequent occurrence in History; they are called Concordats. These are often conspicuous proofs of the tender Love of the Church in pushing her mildness and toleration as far as is consistent with her duty.

The Church is an essential factor in promoting the welfare of the State; for she teaches Obedience to Authority, Prevents many Crimes, Incites men to Noble Endeavor, and Unites together various Nations. Plutarch speaks of Religion forming a better protection for a city than its walls. The Church teaches that the Civil Authority has its Power from God; and that even wicked Rulers are to be obeyed, unless their rulings go against the Commandments and Teachings of the Church. How many Sinners have been rescued by the Church, and changed into Saints and Benefactors of Mankind? How many have been restrained from crime by the Teachings of the Church, or God’s Judgments? How much unjustly acquired property has been restored; and how many enemies reconciled? More than this, the Church teaches that Salvation depends on Works of Mercy; and makes it a Point of Duty for her Members to assist their Suffering Brethren. How many Institutions for Orphans, the Sick, the Blind, the Deaf-mutes, etc. owe their Foundation to the Servants of the Church? Indeed, the Needy are the Church’s first care. Society owes much to the Church.

Through the years, all Good Rulers and Statesmen have supported the Church to the best of their Power. Such was the Policy of Constantine the Great; of Charlemagne; of St. Stephen, King of Hungary; and

St. Wenceslaus, King of Bohemia. Rulers, who rejected the Church, saw their Power and Support taken from them when the people saw them no longer as the Representatives of God, but merely the Elected of the People; thus were Removable by the People. The States which have persecuted the Church have always, sooner or later, experienced the over-throw of their Evil Ways.

Religion is to the State what the Soul is to the Body. Examples: "The Nation and the Kingdom that will not serve Thee shall perish" (Is. 1x 12). "The surest sign of ruin in a State is when Religion is neglected" writes Machiavelli." The Fall of the Great Roman Empire, and the Horrors of the French Revolution may be traced to the same Cause. Even Napoleon confessed that no Nation could be governed without Religion. The Absence of Religion means the Introduction of Crime; resulting in prisons being filled, for the most part, with people who have rejected Religion. "There is no knowledge of God in the land. Cursing, and lying, and killing, and theft, and adultery have overflowed" (Osee iv. 1, 2).

The Church was, from the Earliest Times, the Patron of True Education and Culture. It is to the Interest of the Church to Promote Culture. Ignorance and immorality are usually close companions. The World is a Book displaying the Wisdom of God; the more we know of this Book, the more we shall know of God, and the more will our Love for Him be increased. Hence it is the Duty of the Church to encourage Scientific Research. This Research, though, must first be guided by the Teachings of the Church. It was Christianity which tamed the Wild Nations of Europe, civilizing them and making them the Rulers of other peoples. "Had the Church been established with the view of ministering to the temporal wants of man, it could not have conferred greater benefits than it has done," is the judgment of St. Augustine on the Work of the Church.

It was the Church which first charged itself with the Education of the Young, and founded the First Schools. The Schools of the Monastery, Cathedral, and Parish in the time of Charlemagne owed their Origin to the Church. Most of the Universities owe their existence to the Pope. Whole Orders of Religious, such as the Benedictines, Jesuits, Christian Brothers, and others devote themselves to the Education of Youth. The success of the Jesuits was acknowledged even by their enemies; and, in spite of the Suppression in 1773, Frederick of Prussia and Catherine of Russia, neither of them Catholics, retained them to instruct the Youth of their Kingdoms.

It was the Church which rescued the Great Works of Antiquity from destruction. The Monks of the Middle Ages transcribed the Works of the Heathen Philosophers and Historians, thus preserving them to posterity. The Great Libraries of the Monasteries, as well as the Museums and Libraries of the Popes, preserved many treasures. We might remark, too, that the Benedictines have produced sixteen thousand Authors; and the Jesuits, in their comparatively short existence, twelve thousand.

It was the Church which, from Early Times, raised the Noblest Buildings. Such a Structure, for instance, as St. Peter's in Rome, which was one hundred and ten years in building; or the Cathedral at Cologne, begun in 1249 and finished in 1880. Not to mention the Glorious Structures to be seen in many Countries such as in Germany, France, Spain, and Italy. England is filled with Magnificent Buildings like Westminster, Lincoln, York, Durham, etc. A large proportion of the Finest Edifices in the United States are Catholic Churches.

It was the Church which from the Earliest Times gave the greatest encouragement to the Fine Arts. We owe the use of Plain Chant and Gregorian Chant to St. Ambrose, Bishop of Milan (397 A.D.) and to St. Gregory the Great, Bishop of Rome (604 A.D.); plus its developments to many other Artists. It should also be credited to the Popes who encouraged men like Palestrina (1594). Twice in its History, the Church resisted the Iconoclast (or image-breaking) Movement, first at Nicaea in 787, and then at Trent in 1563. Remember also such Artists of World-wide Fame as Leonardo do Vinci (1519), Raphael (1520), Michael Angelo (1564), Correggio (1564), Canova (1822), etc.; who owed much of their success to the support of the Popes. Also, it was the Cloister which produced some of the Finest Artists and their works.

It was the Church which made whole tracts of land fertile and habitable. Such as the work of the Benedictines and Cistercians in their clearing and draining land, and developing Agriculture; especially in the German forests. The same work was carried on in other Countries by the Trappists and other Religious Orders.

Similarly, it is to Priests and Monks that we owe some of the Greatest Discoveries. The Deacon Flavio Gioja discovered the Magnet and Compass in 1300; Veit, a Monk of Arezzo who discovered the Scale and the Rules of Music and Harmony; the Dominican Spina created the use of Spectacles; the Franciscan Berthold Schwarz who created Gunpowder (1300); the Jesuit Kircher who exhibited the first Burning Glass (1646); Copernicus, a Canon of Franenberg who discovered his famous system (1507); the Jesuit Cavaliere who discovered the Components of White Light (1647); the Spanish Benedictine Pontius invented a Method of Teaching Deaf-mutes (1687); the Jesuit Lana developed a way of teaching the Blind to Read (1687); the Jesuit Secchi (1878) made many discoveries with regard to Sun-Spots; and the Type-setter was invented by the Dominican Calandoni.

The Church has had a long Influence on Society. However, today we see Corruption in our Church and in our Government. God has been dismissed from Schools, from the Halls of Congress; and sad to say, the Church has “Watered-down” her Teachings. She no longer stands as the Strength of our Nation.

Our Holy Mother at Necedah, in Her Messages to Mary Ann Van Hoof, stated “the laity must work”. There are many good Priests across the Nation that need our Support and Prayers. God has raised them to speak out; promoting Prayer and Sacrifice, and teaching the Truths of the Faith. As laity, we, too, must use every opportunity to speak out against the Atrocities being promoted by our Government. We cannot support any law that is Contrary to the Commandments of God. We now see a push to promote a Socialistic Government, where our Freedom of Religion will no longer exist.

Pope John XXIII in his Encyclical "Mater et Magistra" on May 15, 1961 stated, "Pope Pius XI further emphasized the fundamental opposition between Communism and Christianity, and made it clear that no Catholic could subscribe even to moderate Socialism. The reason is that Socialism is founded on a Doctrine of Human Society which is bounded by time and takes no account of any objective other than that of Material Well-being. Since, therefore, it proposes a form of social organization which aims solely at production; it places too severe a Restraint on Human Liberty, at the same time flouting the true notion of social authority."

In a Radio Message to the Katholikentag of Vienna on September 14, 1951, Pope Pius XII stated, "The Church undertook the protection of the individual and the family against a current threatening to bring about a total socialization, which in the end would make the specter of the 'Leviathan' (something huge and formidable of its kind) become a shocking reality. The Church will fight this Battle to the end, for it is a question of Supreme Values: the Dignity of Man and the Salvation of Souls."

Pope Leo XIII, in his Encyclical Quod Apostolici Muneris (on Socialism) stated, "States have been constituted without any count at all of God,, or of the Order established by Him...The Supernatural Truths of Faith having been assailed and cast out as though hostile to reason, the very Author and Redeemer of the Human Race has been slowly and little by little banished from the Universities...and from every Public Institution."

"For, indeed, although the Socialists, stealing the very Gospel itself with a view to deceive more easily the Unwary, have been accustomed to distort it; so as to suit their own purposes. Nevertheless, so great is the difference between their Depraved Teachings and the most pure Doctrine of Christ, that none greater could exist: 'for what participation hath justice with injustice; or what fellowship hath light with darkness'?"

"The Foundation of this Society rests first of all in the Indissoluble Union of the Man and Wife according to the necessity of Natural Law, and is completed in the Mutual Rights and Duties of Parents and Children...You know also that the Doctrines of Socialism strive almost completely to Dissolve this Union; since, that stability which is imparted to it by Religious Wedlock being lost, it follows that the power of the Father over his own Children, and the duties of the Children toward their Parents, must be greatly weakened. But the Church, on the contrary, teaches that ‘Marriage, Honorable in All,’ which God Himself instituted in the very Beginning of the World, and made Indissoluble for the Propagation and Preservation of the Human Species, has become still more binding and more Holy through Christ, who raised it to the Dignity of a Sacrament, and chose to use it as the Figure of His own Union with the Church.”

We are presently facing a clash between God and Satan. We have been placed on this Earth, at this time in History, by the God who Created us. He has given us a special task. We must remain Faithful to Him, no matter the situation. We need to stand up and be counted. God will give us the strength if we rely on Him alone. Our Holy Mother and our Guardian Angel will be beside us. We must all be involved; and must all share the inescapable responsibility to Preserve our Faith. We will be given the fortitude to fight this Battle through Prayer and Sacrifice. We will then

During these Turbulent Times, we also have another Concern. Almost all families have some members who are weak in their Faith; or they may even have lost their Faith and need to return. These members, too, are in need of our prayers.

Let us remember though, that all of these needs are included in the Intentions of the Holy Father as given by the Church. We must not forget that God is in Control; and He would not have us pray for anything Evil or anything against the Catholic Faith. So, let us renew our daily efforts to promote “Praying for the Intentions of the Holy Father”.

Anniversary Days to bless these Grounds. You will not see Me, or the Celestials with Me. I will not abandon you, unless you abandon Me. Is that understood?”

So, these Efforts on our part are the least we can do to show our appreciation to Our Heavenly Mother who humbled Herself by coming to show us how people were offending Her Divine Son; and to warn us of the punishment that would befall our Nation and our Church if we did not mend our ways.

On June 4th, June 16th, August 15th, and October 7th, similar Anniversary Day Prayer Vigils will be held. Please consider joining us if you can, so we can merit Our Heavenly Mother’s help and protection.

United in Prayer

Through the following prayer, let us beg God for the preservation of our great and beautiful Country; for the continuation of Freedom that we have all enjoyed, and for the privilege to share it with others

Act of Consecration of the United States to the Immaculate Heart of Mary

Most Holy Trinity: Our Father in Heaven who chose Mary as the fairest of Your daughters; Holy Spirit who chose Mary as Your spouse; God the Son who chose Mary as Your mother; in union with Mary, we adore Your Majesty and acknowledge Your Supreme Eternal Dominion and Authority.

Most Holy Trinity, we put the United States of America into the hands of Mary Immaculate in order that She may present the Country to You. Through Her we wish to thank You for the great resources of this Land, and for the freedom which has been its heritage. Through the intercession of Mary, have mercy on the Catholic Church in America. Grant us peace. Have mercy on our President and on all the Officers of our Government. Grant us a fruitful economy, born of justice and charity. Have mercy on capital, industry, and labor. Protect the family life of the Nation. Guard the precious gift of many religious vocations. Through the intercession of Our Mother, have mercy on the sick, the poor, the tempted, the sinners, and on all who are in need.

Mary, Immaculate Virgin Our Mother and Patroness of Our Land, we praise You and honor You; and we give our Country and ourselves to Your Sorrowful and Immaculate Heart. O Sorrowful and Immaculate Heart of Mary, pierced by the sword of sorrow prophesied by Simeon, save us from degeneration, disaster, and war. Protect us from all harm. O Sorrowful and Immaculate Heart of Mary, You who bore the sufferings of Your Son in the depths of Your Heart, be our advocate. Pray for us; that acting always according to Your Will and the Will of Your Divine Son, we may live and die pleasing to God. Amen.

Imprimatur, Patrick Cardinal O'Boyle, Archbishop of Washington, 1959, for Public Consecration of the United States to the Immaculate Heart of Mary; renewed by U.S. Bishops, November 11, 2006; renewal effort led by Archbishop Jose H. Gomez, President of U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops – May 1, 2020

SUPPORTIVE CLERGY/RELIGIOUS

Through the years many Clergy and Religious from near and far became supportive of the Apparitions at Necedah. By a Reflective Study over the history of some of these supportive members of the Catholic Clergy and Religious, one is led to be very impressed. With the recent passing of Sr. Genevieve, it seemed appropriate to have us ponder over what they must have witnessed to make them so supportive. This first Profile will lead us in that reflective venture.

Fr. Albin Martins

Albin was born in Portugal of Royal Parents and spent several of his teen years in Spain studying engineering. When he was 17 years old, he was commissioned a Lieutenant in the Portuguese Army. In 1910 a Revolution in his Country overturned the Monarchy and most of his family was assassinated. Fr. Albin was betrayed by an Army Officer, court marshaled, and sentenced to 16 years of hard labor in Africa.

Before being sent to Africa, he successfully escaped by swimming out to a ship anchored in the harbor that was heading for England.

While in England, an opportunity arose for him to go to Brazil as an Engineer Surveyor. Here he met the Missionaries from DePere, WI, so decided to become a Priest of the Norbertine Order.

Albin was ordained December 21, 1923; and when becoming a citizen of the United States, he was assigned the Pastor of St. John's Parish in Cottonwood, Montana in 1927.

Father later came to Oneida, WI where he became the Pastor of St. Joseph's Parish; and also devoted time to teaching Seminarians at St. Norbert's College. Due to some health issues, Father moved to Lakewood, WI and lived in a cabin next door to Mr. and Mrs. Weinhold.

The Weinholds invited Father to live with them, especially through the Winter months. Mr. Weinhold was a 33rd Degree Mason. Through Father's efforts, he renounced his membership and died with the sanction of the Catholic Church.

Mrs. Jane Weinhold became a fervent Catholic after returning from being a lapsed Catholic. Father and Mrs. Weinhold learned of the Apparitions at Necedah and went to meet Mary Ann Van Hoof on September 23, 1950. After a lengthy and convincing discussion which included learning about Our Lady's Request for a large House of Prayer to be built at the Spot of the Apparitions, Father's engineering background

From Vol. III of the four Volumes that Henry Swan compiled and released in 1959 entitled "My Work With Necedah." Henry was chosen by Our Blessed Mother in 1950 to help Mary Ann Van Hoof. He proved to be a very valuable help to both Mary Ann and to Our Blessed Mother: First, he was a Protector to Mary Ann at times when her life was threatened, and during her Suffering Periods for obtaining Graces for Youth in need. Second, he was a Promoter of Our Blessed Mother's Sacred Cause by compiling these Four Volumes of Information.

The Devil Laughs With Glee

The Devil is laughing in glee these days as he sees his plans for World destruction and domination moving forward at an ever-increasing speed. He is laughing in glee as he sees the ever-increasing number of people who are swallowing his poisonous bait, as he sees those who are his enemies destroying each other. Imagine his joy at seeing the indifference, the apathy of millions of people throughout the World as to what is going on in their own Countries. In many Countries they now have found out, but it is too late.

In no Country of the World is this true as it is here in our own United States of America. In no Country in the World have the people as much to lose as in our own Country. Our Country, God's Country, where the people have been showered with more of God's blessings than any Country in the World. Our Country where, with God's help, our Forefathers were able to set up the greatest, freest Government in the World.

Our Country has been looked on with hope by all those people in the World who have lost their Free-dom to the Forces of Evil, who now sweat and toil and live in constant fear under their Dictator Masters, where even those same Dictator Masters sweat in fear of each other and of those they rule.

This, the greatest of all Nations, the greatest of all Governments in the World, was founded by our Fore-fathers as a Partnership between God and Man. God sat in on its Formation, on the drawing up of our Constitu-tion, and at all Government Meetings. No decision was made without asking the help and guidance of that Partner.

Those in whom we have placed our trust, in recent years, have revoked that Partnership. They have decided to go it alone; and here, as in other Countries for which we have been feeling sorry, we have now lost our Freedom. True, the masses of our people do not yet realize it, for they have been lulled to sleep by the drugged bait of the Devil which has been handed them; and which, in their greed, they have swallowed without first examining it. What is true of most people is not true of all of them. We still have in our Country some few people who have retained their ability to think; and who, being of God, resent His being discarded as a Partner. He, who is OUT Master, was willing to be our Partner to help and guide us; but He is still our Master, even though we discard Him as a Partner.

To our Forefathers, God was very real and very close. What have been the things that have been used to draw a whole Christian Nation away from that Partnership; to cause them to forget the allegiance that they owe to their Master?

God has said in the very First Commandment which was given to Moses: "Thou shalt not have false gods before you." We do! As a Nation, material things have replaced God in the minds and thoughts of people. Wealth and power have become the all-important things. Even those who are supposed to be the Representatives of Christ here on Earth have swallowed the poisoned bait of the Devil; and are devoting more time and thought and work to materialistic things and pleasures, than they are to the Spiritual Work for which they were Ordained.

We could under no circumstances expect this Dissolution of Partnership, this flaunting of things of the Devil in the face of God, to go unpunished. In all fairness and justice, we should expect it; and, it is at hand. Man is punishing and destroying man all over the Globe. Millions are suffering; and it is only the beginning. Millions more will suffer as God permits man to destroy himself.

The Devil, as he looks over this strife-torn World, certainly has reason to be gleeful. He sees his plans working out beautifully; plans which he has furthered, all down through the Ages. He sees those who are his Allies sitting in the Places of High Position wherever he looks. Everything is going his way. He is being permitted to have it so by God, in punishment of man.

Is there anything that can save us? Yes. We must go back in all humility to God; and ask Him to come back and take His place in that Partnership from which He was evicted. We must go back to Him on our knees as a whole Nation, and ask His forgiveness. Then and only then, with God as our Partner where He started out with our Forefathers, can this Nation and the World be saved.

In all of man's plots and intrigues which have led up to the present Great Crisis in the World, the masses of people have been misled; fooled. They have been given anything but the truth. False Pictures and Propaganda have led them down the paths to destruction.

The Master Plan for World Domination has been so diabolically conceived and perfected down through the Ages, that its very existence is known only to a comparative few; and those who do know it, many will not believe it because of its ruthlessness, because of its very diabolical nature, the very things that have been the reason for its success.

History books, which should be based solely on his-torical facts, have only been used as a means to further the false ideologies. Particularly is this true since World War II. From the Period of World War II on, we have been in a Historical Blackout; and the books con-tain nothing of History, only Propaganda. The term Brainwash has been used in reference to the teaching of prisoners who have fallen into the hands of the enemy; but we as a Nation have all been Brainwashed.

Our Holy Mother, the Mother of Our Lord, has through Mary Ann Van Hoof given certain work and facts, the purpose of which I do not know. I do know that they change the entire picture of things as it has been given to the people. At times people have discovered that some of these things were true, and of the involvement of certain people in the huge plot of the Forces of Evil; and many of them have lost their lives as a result of their knowledge. Many have been forced to hold their tongues, by threat of reprisal. Many have been dis-credited in the eyes of those to whom they wished to expose their knowledge, by means of smear campaigns and character assassination. Absolutely any means have been used, from assassination down, to achieve their pur-poses and goals. There is no foul means they will not resort to, to achieve the end they desire - and that is absolute World Control; with all the Common People as Slaves, to be used as they desire.

Ponder these Messages that Our Blessed Mother gave to Mary Ann Van Hoof:

May 29, 1950 “Wake up America! The Enemy of God is creeping all over America. Yes, you believe it can’t happen here. I am warning you people again as I warned you at Fatima, Lipa, and LaSalette of what did already and will happen. Still you believe Me not; and you have no faith in Me. You turn your back on Me.”

May 30, 1950 “Remember, My Child, that the time is coming, sorrow and slaughter of My children will be worse than ever in history. It grieves Me to see innocent children, the sick and poor destroyed because of greed and the desire for power by a few Nation’s leaders. That is why I say Pray, Pray! Give this Message to the people, for prayers only will save the destruction of this World.”

PRO-LIFE NEWS

It has been just over 100 days into the New Presidency of the United States, and we already know for certain the direction this new Administration is taking toward the Helpless Unborn. On March 1st in a new Report to the Office of Director of National Intelligence, the Administration placed Pro-life Supporters on a list they called “Domestic Violent Extremists”. Thus, it is now the Pro-life Activists who are being physically attacked and vilified, while they are just trying to Protest Peacefully for the Ending of Abortion.

In the first 100 days in Office, the new President has also reversed four important Protections for the Unborn that were in place with President Donald Trump. During his first week in Office, the new President rescinded the Mexican City Policy. This Policy was first instituted by President Reagan back in 1984 which bared Federal Funding Overseas from being used to “perform abortions; to provide advice, counseling or information regarding abortion; to lobby a foreign government to legalize abortion; or to make abortion services more easily available.”

The new President is also reversing Federal Regulations regarding Research on the Remains of Unborn Babies. Under the Trump Administration, the United States Department of Health and Human Services announced that National Institutes of Health Research involving “new acquisition of human fetal tissue from elective abortions” would no longer be allowed. However, the new Administration’s Health and Human Services Department has now reversed the former Policy, and declared that “all Research Applications for NIH Grants and Contracts proposing the use of human fetal tissue from elective abortions” would no longer have to be reviewed by an Ethics Advisory Board.

Another change by the new Administration is the Title X Program which is dedicated to “ensuring access to a broad range of family planning and related preventive health services for millions of low-income or uninsured individuals and others.” The Trump Administration’s Rules ensured that Title X Funds could not be used to “promote, refer for, or support abortion as a method of family planning.” This is now being reversed because they allege that it “undermined the public health of the population the Program was meant to serve.”

Still another Act by the new Administration is removing the United States from an International Alliance which was upholding the Unborn Child’s Inalienable Right to Life. Former Secretary of State Mike Pompeo initiated this “Geneva Consensus Declaration on Promoting Women’s Health and Strengthening the Family” — a Document affirming that “in no case should abortion be promoted as a method of family planning,” This upheld the reality that “all are equal before the law.” Secretary Pompeo also remarked

SAINTS IN REVIEW

Throughout the years Mary Ann Van Hoof was visited by many saints. They were sent by Our Holy Mother to help her fulfill the Sacred Cause by providing encouragement and information. Very often we find that their lives while on earth paralleled the information or purpose for their appearance to her.

Pope Leo XIII

Gioacchino Vincenzo Raffaele Luigi Pecci was born into nobility on March 2, 1810 in Carpineto, Italy. He was the sixth of seven sons born to Count Lodovico Pecci and his wife Anne.

At the age of eight, together with his ten year-old brother, Guiseppe, Gioacchino was sent to study at the new Jesuit school in Viterbo. He was very successful in his studies of Classical Latin and Italian, and was admired for his writings. He then went into the studies of Humanities and Rhetoric, and was praised for his speech on “The Contrast between Pagan and Christian Rome”.

After three more successful years studying Philosophy and Natural Sciences, his plans were aimed at a public career. Gioacchino’s mother wished for him to embrace the religious life, but without plans to do so, he began the studies of Theology as well as Canon and Civil Law.

In 1832 Gioacchino obtained his doctorate in Theology and was admitted to the Academy of Noble Ecclesiastics to further study Canon and Civil Law. In January of 1837, he was appointed to serve Pope Gregory XVI while still in Minor Orders. In March of 1837, he was asked to serve Cardinal Sala and admirably served in overseeing all the city hospitals during a cholera epidemic in Rome. On December 31, 1837 he was ordained to the priesthood.

In a few short years this youthful delegate of Pope Gregory XVI brought about peace between the province and the smugglers in the area, arranged for more just distribution of taxes to fix roads, and stopped the government from taking property from the Papal States.

In February of 1843 Fr. Pecci was made an Archbishop, which led to many assignments needing his ability to resolve conflicts. Pope Gregory XVI had planned to make him a Cardinal, but died before it happened. He was eventually made a Cardinal on December 19, 1853 by Pope Pius IX.

Throughout his assignments, he insisted that his priests catechize the young and the old, provide retreats and missions, and instill piety with knowledge of the Truths of the Faith.

In August of 1877, Cardinal Pecci was summoned to Rome. Pope Pius IX died on February 7, 1878 and the Liberal Press was encouraging the Italian government to take a hand in the Conclave and occupy the Vatican.

made him ask for more specific details that he could study.

When receiving a hand-sketched outline and some interior details from Mrs. Van Hoof as she recalled them from her Vision, Father was surprised that the sketch was exactly to scale which allowed him to prepare blueprints. Mrs. Van Hoof was equally surprised to find Father's work just like her Vision. Father only stated that Our Lady guided his hand; and thus became the "Architect of the House of Prayer".

In 1962 Father and Mrs. Weinhold moved to Necedah so Father could help with the Shrine Construction Work. Father was responsible for hewing the large Cross for the Crucifixion Grotto, which he had stated would make his life complete.

On the morning of April 6, 1963 the Cross was erected, so Father started surveying some land adjacent to the Shrine Grounds until his car stalled in some soft ground. This stress caused a heart attack; and Father passed on to his Eternal Reward at about 4:00 P.M.

Quote by President Ronald Reagan

"You and I have a rendezvous with destiny. We'll preserve for our children this the last best hope of man on earth, or we'll sentence them to take the last step into a thousand years of darkness. We're at war with the most dangerous enemy that has ever faced mankind in his long climb from the swamp to the stars. And it's been said, if we lose this war, and in so doing, lose this great way of freedom of ours, history will record with the greatest astonishment that those that had the most to lose did the least to prevent it from happening.

Well, I think it's high time now that we ask ourselves if we still even know the freedoms that were intended for us by our founding fathers. Every generation of Americans needs to know that freedom exists, not to do what you like, but having the right to do what you ought, and that is the freedom that I wish for you. Set yourselves apart from this corrupt generation."

However, because the government was distracted with the Russo-Turkish War, the Conclave proceeded as usual. After three ballots, on February 20, 1878 Cardinal Pecci became Pope Leo XIII, the 256th Pope of the Catholic Church.

The Pontificate of Pope Leo XIII has been regarded as very successful. He brought about stricter theological training of the Roman Catholic clergy on lines laid down by St. Thomas Aquinas. He wrote eleven encyclicals on the Rosary, two on new Marion Scapulars, and strongly opposed Freemasonry. He also encouraged the study of science alongside religion, and opened up the Vatican Archives for Historical Studies.

In the minds of many, however, the greatest contribution of Pope Leo XIII may have been his creation and implementation of the St. Michael's Prayer, to be said after Mass each day to defend the Church against the powers of Satan.

Pope Leo XIII was the oldest Pope, as he died on July 20, 1903 at the age of 93. His Pontificate of 25 years was the third longest, behind his at the time that the Trump Administration had “mounted an Unprecedented Defense of the Unborn abroad.” This Declaration was signed by nearly three dozen Countries: including Brazil, Egypt, Kenya, Saudi Arabia, and the United Arab Emirates.

After the Document's creation in 2020, former Secretary for Health and Human Services, Alex Azar emphasized that the Geneva Consensus Declaration reaffirmed that the Family was the “Natural and Fundamental Group Unit of Society”: thus making it a “Historic Document that clearly stated where we as Nations stand on Women's Health, on the Family, on Honoring Life, and on Defending National Sovereignty.”

President Biden has now directed his new Secretary of State and Secretary of Health and Human Services to “withdraw our Co-sponsorship and Signature” from this Document; and to notify other Signatories of the reversal. Plus, President Biden has also approved getting rid of the Hyde Amendment, which prevented American Taxpayer Money from being used to fund abortions; even though he personally supported the Hyde Amendment when he was a Senator.

President Biden has now indicated some of his future goals. He wants to pack the Supreme Court numbers and eliminate the Filibuster in the Senate, so he can make Roe v Wade the permanent Law of the Land.

What can we do? The most Powerful Weapon we have to fight this Attack on the Unborn is Prayer, especially the Daily Rosary and observing the Five First Saturdays. We must also pray that President Biden is given the Grace to see his Errors; and realize, that as a Catholic and an American, he must be willing to Defend the Lives of the Unborn – who are the Future of our Nation, and of Christendom itself.
